(ANECAT)*

Guilhem Cleedel became the youngest ANECAT President since its foundation in 1952. The association, whose headquarters are in France, contributes to the development of underground tourism around the world and is a legitimate member of the International Show Caves Association. ISCA would like to congratulate the new ANECAT Executive Committee and wish them all the best in the future.

Below you can find the Christmas card which was recently sent by ANECAT.
